

Elite Protection Where and When You Need It

Our business is high-level security. Your business is building and supporting our country's infrastructure. Our Protection solutions are built on decades of experience safeguarding the U.S. Government and cleared industry and tailored to meet your global needs.

For over 30 years, Paragon's uniformed security officers have supported vital homeland security missions and protected some of the Nation's most critical infrastructure. Today, Paragon Risk Management builds on that experience with the integration and deployment of highly specialized physical and technical security measures and countermeasures to protect our clients' assets at home and abroad.

Whether it is personal protection for executives and employees, discreet physical surveillance of potential threat actors, or sweeping facilities for electronic listening devices or explosives, Paragon Risk Management has the capabilities to meet your unique security needs.

With field offices in 36 U.S. states and an extensive global network of resources in over 100 countries, we can put "boots on the ground" quickly and reliably.
